SECTION 63.71 APPLICATION OF CALENCE, LLC

Calence, LLC f/k/a Calence, Inc. (hereinafter "Calence") applies for authority under Section 214(a) of the Communications Act, as amended ("the Act"), 47 U.S.C. § 214 and Section 63.71 of the Federal Communications Commission's ("Commission") rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.71, to discontinue operating as a CLEC in New York City, New York.

As required by Section 63.71(a) and (b) of the Commission's rules, AT&T is providing the following information:

Name and Address of CLEC (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(1), (b)(2):

Calence
1560 W. Fountainhead Parkway
Second Floor
Tempe, AZ 85282

Date of Planned Service Discontinuance (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(2), (b)(2):

Calence plans to discontinue offering CLEC services effective July 10, 2011, subject to Commission approval of this application. The service will continue to be provided to existing customers in accordance with the terms of their contract until their contracts expire, until such time as the customer transfers to another carrier, or until July 10, 2011.

Points of Geographic Areas of Service Affected (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(3), (b)(2):

CLEC service will be discontinued at the Time Warner Center facilities in New York, NY.

Brief Description of Type of Service Affected (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(3), (b)(2):

Calence has been providing telecommunications services to the Time Warner building in New York, NY since January 2003 to a select number of the tenants of the building pursuant to an arrangement with the owners of the Time Warner building. On or about December 2010, the current owners of the Time Warner building notified Calence that they were choosing to terminate all relationship with Calence as a telecommunications provider to the tenants of the building. The original date of termination was April 10, 2011. The owners have extended that date to July 10, 2011. The public convenience and necessity is not harmed by Calence's discontinuance of this service as there are competing carriers in the marketplace.

Brief Description of Dates and Methods of Notice to All Affected Customers (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(b)(3):

Calence notified its customers on or about December 27, 2010 of its intention to discontinue this service offering by letter. Additional correspondence to all customers has been sent on regular intervals. In addition, support services have been provided by Calence to customers to assist in transferring service to other carriers.

The New York State Public Service Commission was notified on January 10, 2010 and has been working with Calence personnel to affect a smooth discontinuance of service to all customers. Copies of this Application are being sent, first class US Mail, to the public utility commission and governor of New York and also to the Special Assistance for Telecommunications to the Secretary of Defense, as required by Section 63.71(a) of the Commission's rules.

Regulatory Classification of Carrier ((47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(b)(4):

Calence acknowledges that this Application will be processed using the Commission's rules for non-dominant carriers.

Questions about this Application may be addressed to Lisanne Cottingham, Calence Inc.,
Compliance Officer, 6820 S. Harl Avenue, Tempe, AZ 85283, (480) 333-3012.

Conclusion:

The public convenience and necessity will not be adversely affected by the discontinuance of provision of telecommunication services by Calence. Therefore, Calence respectfully requests the Commission approve its Section 63.71 Application to discontinue provision of telecommunication services as a CLEC.

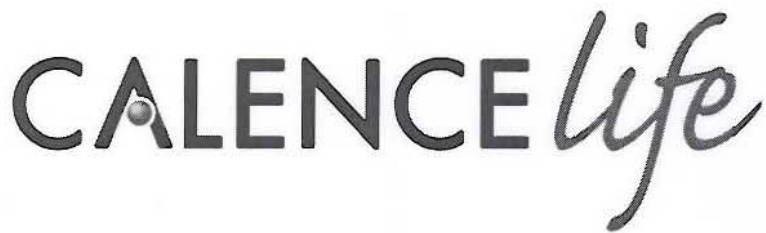

Respectfully submitted,

Calence LLC f/k/a Calence, Inc.

YOU MUST CHOOSE A NEW LOCAL TELEPHONE SERVICE PROVIDER BY APRIL 10, 2011

Dear Resident:

We regret to inform you that as of April 10, 2011, CalenceLife (Calence) will no longer provide you with telephone (local and long distance) and internet services. As we explained in a previous letter, this change is pursuant to recent business decisions made by the Time Warner Center's building management to move its individual clients to an open access model where each client will be able to select a service provider of their choice.

In order to continue to keep your current local telephone number(s), you must select a new telephone and internet provider as soon as possible but no later than April 10, 2011. Generally, you can find a list of most local telephone service providers in your local telephone directory or contact the concierge service that is available to assist you (See information at the end of this letter).

Please note that after your services have been moved to your new provider, you are required to return all equipment provided by Calence. If the equipment is not returned, you will be billed according to the terms of your contract. The attachment to this letter will provide you with your equipment inventory list and current services that you have with Calence.

Please be aware that you are responsible for paying all bills rendered to you by Calence during this transition for the services provided. You may be subject to suspension or termination of your phone services in accordance with the Public Service Commission rules if you fail to pay your telephone bill.

Calence regrets any inconvenience this change may cause you. If you require assistance with your transition to a new carrier, please contact us at 800-249-9931. In addition, the New York State Department of Public Service (Maria LeBoeuf at (518) 474-1362) is available to answer questions you may have regarding processing an order from Calence to your new carrier.

It was a pleasure and privilege to serve you!

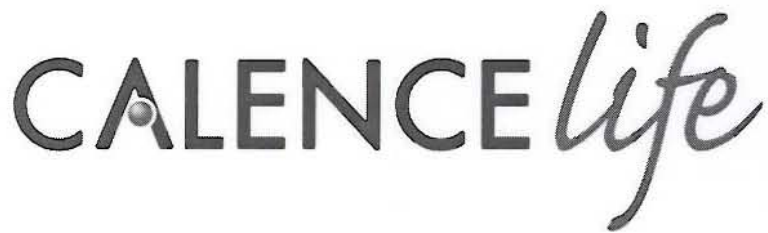

Sincerely,

CalenceLife Management
